

New Challenge Given City Right-To-Work Law

Labor Party To Demand Elections

Charges Queen Was Involved in Party Politics

LONDON (AP)—The opposition Labor Party prepared today to demand immediate elections on grounds the Conservatives involved Queen Elizabeth in party politics by leaving it up to her to choose a new prime minister.

It was a technical point that rocked Britain because the constitution prevents the monarch from taking part in politics.

THE QUEEN was charged with choosing between Chancellor of Exchequer Harold MacMillan and House Majority Leader R. A. Butler when Sir Anthony Eden resigned as prime minister earlier this week. Normally, the party in power nominates a single choice for the premiership, relieving the monarch of personal political responsibility.

The Labor Party began maneuvering for new elections even before MacMillan was announced as the new prime minister.

THE SOCIALISTS met behind closed doors Friday night to map strategy to force MacMillan into calling an immediate general election on grounds his appointment Thursday was unconstitutional, although the term of the present Conservative - ruled Parliament does not expire until 1960.

The Laborites put off a decision whether to push the point until Labor leader Hugh Gaitskell returns from a lecture tour in the United States.

The dispute broke wide open before MacMillan had time to complete his cabinet. He was expected to present the new government to the queen for formal approval Sunday.

Canine Critic Bites Douglas, Now Sought

A canine critic with an obvious grudge against actors caught up with Kirk Douglas here yesterday and sank his teeth into the movie star's thigh.

"It was just a case of mistaken identity," Douglas reported. "He must have mistaken me for some other bad actor."

Douglas said he was riding a bike with his son near the Douglas home at 1069 Marshall Way when the dog leaped up, bit the actor's thigh and "where dogs usually bite people," and raced off.

Douglas later received a tetanus injection to ward off infection and City Humane Officer Bill Mueller began a search for the animal to check for the possibility of rabies.

Mueller said if the dog is not found, Douglas will face the painful Pasteur anti-rabies vaccine treatment.

The dog, who was accompanied by a canine pal, was described as being average size and having a long-haired coat of brown with black spots or shadings.

County, Desert Leaders Agree

Twenty-six Coachella Valley civic and business leaders met last night with three members of the County Board of Supervisors — Paul Anderson, George Berkey, and Curtis Chamberlin — "to talk of many things that will affect the Fourth Supervisorial district" and to let the Supervisors know how local residents feel about proposed county legislation.

Discussion was opened by Lloyd Loveland of Indio, who outlined a three-point "protection program" to be watched by the Supervisors, that would materially affect the future of the Coachella Valley. The three points are:

(1) TOURIST BUSINESS — the protection of tourist trade in the northern end (Palm Springs) of the Valley.

(2) Agricultural Interest — last year $27,000,000 worth of agricultural products were grown and sold out of the Valley.

(3) Industrial Potential — already starting to grow with a railroad industry, packing industry, and a big future for both.

LOVELAND SAID that each of these has a specific project that can protect it — The tourist industry, proper flood control; agriculture, protection of the water supply; and industry, proper zoning.

The three supervisors present stood in agreement that the Coachella Valley would be "recognized" by the board, "and with the counsel of people of the Valley, and

Tracks of Large Wildcat Bring Warning to Public

City Humane officers today cautioned residents of southeast Palm Springs areas to keep a watchful eye out for a wildcat that may be wandering in the vicinity.

Humane Officer Bill Mueller reported that tracks of what is believed to be a large cat of the puma or lynx variety have been found around homes in the 700 block of Palm Avenue, a few blocks off East Ramon Road.

THE TRACKS were discovered by Bill Johnson, of 720 Palm Avenue, who reported he found the large, cat-paw marks around his home twice during the past week. Other area residents also reported sighting the tracks.

The animal apparently came out of the wash running east along

Navy Develops Missile With 1500 Mile Range

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department announced today that a new type ballistic missile with a 1,500-mile range is being developed by the Navy. It is called Polaris.

Addition of the Navy project means that five ballistic missiles, with ranges from 1,500 to 5,000 miles, are being developed for use in any future nuclear war.

The missiles, against which there now is no known defense, often have been described as "the ultimate weapon of the future."

Armed with atomic warheads, they will travel in a ballistic trajectory into outer space and come crashing down on their targets at several times the speed of sound.

Navy officials have claimed that with a 1,500-mile missile, the Navy could hit virtually any target in the vast heartland of Russia.

Polaris will be designed for launching either from surface ships or submarines.

4 Youths Admit Train Wreck Try

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two 14-year-old boys were held by juvenile authorities today and two other boys were released to their parents in connection with attempts to derail a Pacific Electric freight train.

The four boys admitted piling railroad ties, tires, seats and a steel sign on tracks in the Hawthorne area Thursday night. An engineer saw the barricade in time to stop this train at the crossing.

Union Seeks To Outlaw 'Open Shop'

Electrical Union Allegedly Guilty of Violation

Another section of the City of Palm Springs' controversial Right-to-Work law came under attack this week, with Walter L. Stephenson as an individual and as a representative of Local 440, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers asking that the Superior Court declare the ordinance unconstitutional and invalid.

The new action attacks the contract provision of the ordinance which outlaws "closed shop" agreements.

BESIDES ASKING that the ordinance be declared unconstitutional, it requests that the City of Palm Springs and Police Chief August G. Kettmann be stopped from enforcing it.

Both Kettmann and Mayor Florian G. Boyd were served with notice to appear in Department 4, Superior Court at Indio at 9 a.m. next Friday, to show cause why such action should not be granted by the court.

City Attorney Jerry Bunker said this noon that George Richter of Los Angeles, special attorney hired by city council, will represent both the city and Kettmann.

THIS NEW ACTION parallels previous legal maneuvers started by Attorney Lionel Richman on behalf of Local 535, Culinary and Bartenders Union; Local 467, General Truck Drivers Union, and the Building and Construction Trade Council of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. Judge Hilton McCabe currently has this matter under advisement.

It does have one different facet though, as it allegedly admits that either Stephenson or the Local 440 directly violated the ordinance in signing a "closed shop" contract on Dec. 29, which took effect on Jan. 2. This contract was with H & S Electronic Service Corp., and was signed in Palm Springs.

THE ORDINANCE went into effect on Dec. 14.

Bunker said today that once the constitutionality of the law is established, the persons responsible for the ordinance violation will be prosecuted, and would face the misdemeanor penalty of a fine of $500 or jail sentence of six months.

Krings' Station Is Burglarized

Riverside County Deputy Sheriffs are today investigating the burglary of Vernon Krings' Chevron Service Station in Cathedral City, from which $103 was stolen from a cash register.

Entry was made through the front door, after the intruders broke a window and unlatched the lock.

Deputy Sheriff Don Gorman said that this was the second burglary in less than one month.

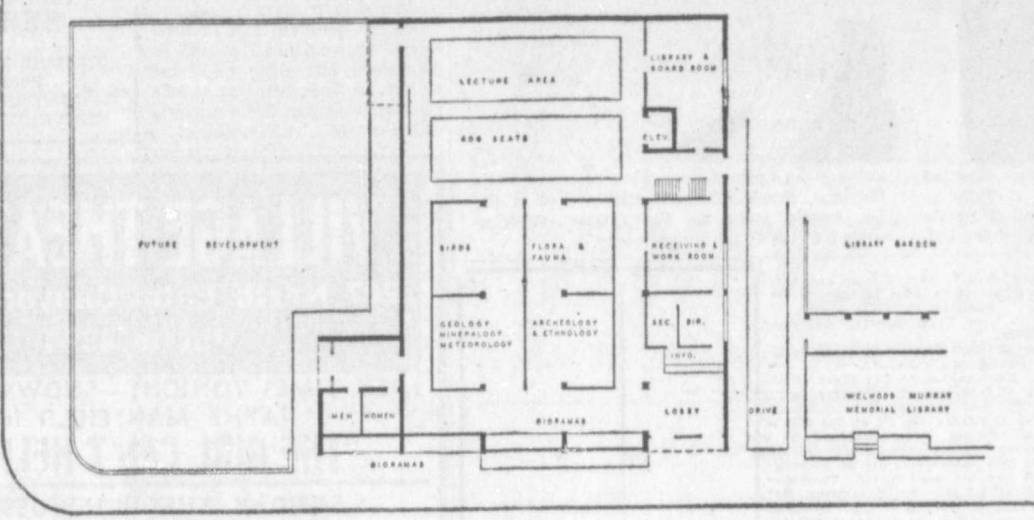

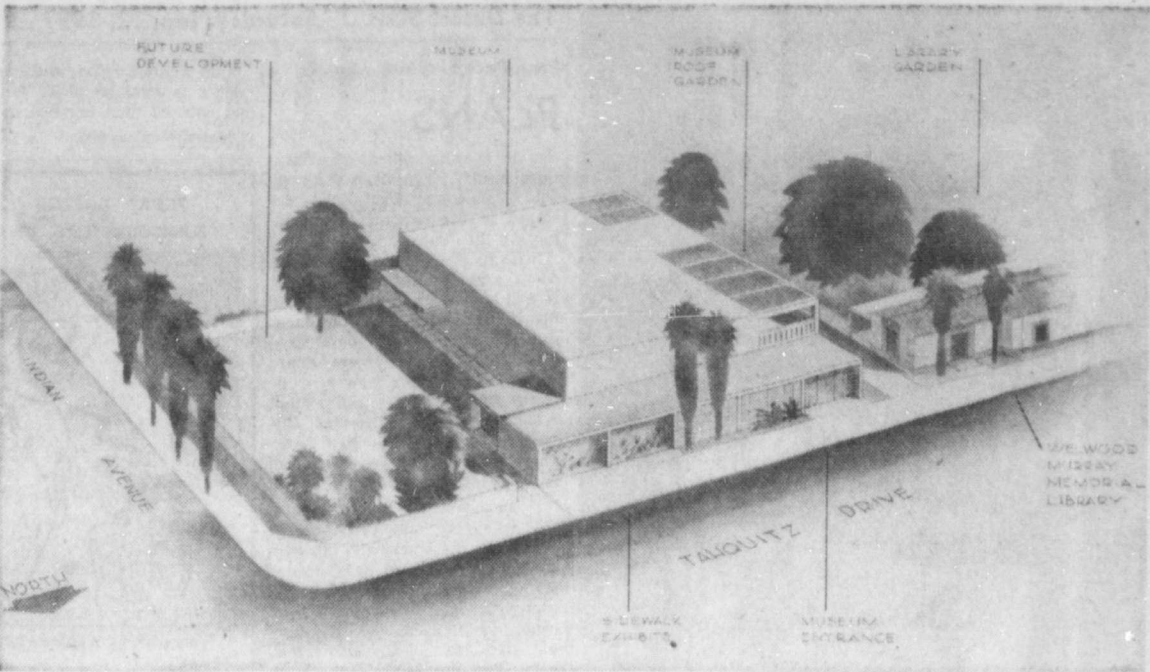

Late in December the Whitney Market was burglarized, with $65 taken from there.

BUDAPEST UP - Russian armored cars and Communist militia today sealed off the Csepel Island iron and steel mills, where at least two rebellious workers were killed by Red police Friday. The shooting was expected to touch off a new wave of anti-government riots.

HOLLYWOOD UP - Marie McDonald left a secret hideaway today to view a suspected kidnaper picked up by police. She said he was not one of her two alleged kidnappers.

PLANS FOR THE NEW Desert Museum were revealed today by the fund drive co-chairmen, Earl Coffman and Ernest Alschuler. Above is a drawing of the proposed structure, while below is a floor plan. The fund drive will start Feb. 1.

County Groups To Join Fight For Tramway

The County Board of Supervisors will be asked to rejoin the battle against repeal of authorization for creation of the Mt. San Jacinto Tramway, it was reported here today.

The County Board of Trade has voted to ask supervisors to renew their support of the $12 million enterprise that was sidetracked last month by State Park Commission refusal to renew the contract for tramway construction by the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority.

Supervisorial aid will be sought in the form of a resolution designed to enlist aid of the county representatives in the state legislature in the fight against new efforts to repeal laws authorizing the tramway.

New hope was seen for the tramway in a letter from the State Division of Parks and Beaches to the Board of Trade noting that the Park Commission would reconsider its last decision if sale of bonds to build the tramway "becomes feasible."

Architectural Plans Revealed For New Museum Addition

Architects' plans for the proposed new $200,000 Desert Museum were unveiled today as the tempo of arrangements for the opening about Feb. 1 of a fund-raising campaign was stepped up by Museum officials.

Organization of the divisions of the drive through which the entire community will be asked to contribute the needed funds to erect the modern Museum structure, is progressing rapidly and announcements will be ready early next week of leaders of the principal parts of the appeal, Co-Chairmen Ernest Alschuler and Earl Coffman said today.

PLANS FOR the Museum building which would rise on part of the Tahquitz Dr. and Indian Avenue site donated by Miss Cornelia White were drawn by Architects John Clark, Albert Frey and Robinson Chambers. Of typical Palm Springs modern design, the building would have as predominate features on the Tahquitz Drive frontage large display windows, two facing inward and two outward. In these could be maintained major dioramas or exhibits.

The building, known as Unit A of the Museum's expansion program as approximately half of the lot would be available for further expansion, will be two series in height.

ON THE ground floor will be located spacious exhibit areas, more than double the present display space in the temporary wooden building being used by the Museum, and a lecture space accommodating 400 persons. So jam-packed is the lecture area in the existing building visitors must be turned away from virtually all programs, according to Dr. C. E. Smith, the director.

"Others, knowing how crowded are the facilities don't even try to get into the programs," he said. NOT ONLY would the 400-seat lecture section relieve the Museum congestion but would be available for meetings other community organizations and for convention gatherings. The Museum brings to Palm Springs annually many outstanding scientists, research experts and world travelers, in addition. See PLANS, Page 2

County Planners To Consider Side Yard Variances

Riverside County Planning Commission will consider several basic planning topics, as well as specialized ones, at its meeting at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, in the courthouse in Riverside.

Among the items are: Side yard variances in the La Quinta district; resolution of intent to permit drying sheds and appurtenant facilities and vegetable and fruit packing sheds among those uses permitted in Zone A-1 (light agricultural); definition of farm labor camps and cattle feeding yards, subdivision improvement standards.

Indio Area Zoning To Be Considered

Riverside County Supervisors will consider the report of county planners in regard to interim zoning in the west Indio district, at their meeting at 9 a.m., Monday. The board also will consider the auto storage ordinance which has been deferred several times despite letters from various civic groups stressing the importance of its being enacted.

Disaster Crews Alerted at Malibu

MALIBU (AP)—Emergency crews were on an around-the-clock alert today to prevent damage from possible floods in burned over canyons here.

Director of Civil Defense Howard Earl said disaster crews of all county agencies were alerted when rain was predicted for the weekend.

Mad Bomber Lead Fizzles In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Police still were without suspects today after a brief flurry of early morning activity led into another dead end in the search for "the mad bomber of Manhattan."

Tension mounted with reports that papers and notes bearing handwriting similar to that of the elusive bomber had been found in the apartment of a machinist who had died two days ago.

It was dispelled, however, when a handwriting expert said there was no similarity between the handwriting of Andrew Kleewen, 67, and that of the madman whose homemade explosives have injured 15 persons during the past 16 years.

Police called in handwriting experts after making a routine check of Kleewen's Bronx apartment where, they said, they also found newspapers and electric bills which they thought might have a bearing on the mystery.

Kleewen, a Latvian, died in Fordham Hospital of pneumonia, according to police.

Desert area forecast: Cloudy with intermittent rain through Sunday. Slightly cooler. High temperatures 45 to 58 upper valleys, and 58 to 65 lower valleys. High here yesterday was 67, and low was 42.

Community Chest Fund Drive Lagging

Heed this call, it's a distress message of great urgency.

"Six agencies who are wholly dependent upon your generosity are seeking assistance in the current drive now underway by the Palm Springs Community Chest."

"And the campaign is about two weeks late with the goal of $50,000 a long way off," Dewey Metzdorf, campaign chairman, appealed today.

At a meeting of directors of the Palm Springs Community Chest it was announced that the urgent need of funds for the lagging campaign has reached serious proportions.

"The advance gifts which usually make up a good portion of the contributions are far beneath the total collected in previous years and this poses quite a serious problem," said Metzdorf.

Herb Richardson and Bob Holister were appointed a committee of two to start the trailer park collections which will formally get underway January 28 and end February 16.

It was also announced that the beautiful Joe Pawling home will be opened for inspection starting Jan. 24 with admission placed at one dollar donation, and all of the funds collected will be turned over to the chest. The Palm Springs Girl Scout and the members of the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society will act as hostesses.

A house to house drive for funds also is in the process of organization now.

"But please don't wait until you are solicited," Metzdorf urged. "Send your contributions in by mail to headquarters in the Palm Springs Community Chest at 813 North Palm Canyon Drive."

Wintry Blasts Claim 43 Lives in 3 Days

By UNITED PRESS
Wintry blasts howled past the Atlantic Coast today, leaving at least 43 persons dead in its wake, which extended over the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

The icicle-coated air, the coldest of the season, moved away from the central East Coast early today, but its chilly fingers continued to send the mercury shivering down barometer scales in the Middle Atlantic states.

RESIDENTS FROM New England eastward through the Great Lakes were blessed with relief from the sub-zero wave. Parts of the Ohio and middle Mississippi Valleys also benefitted from the warmer air. Temperatures scampered up, as high as 30 degrees above the previous day's readings in some parts.

The Northern Plains and upper Mississippi Valley were offered no relief from the long-underwear weather. Residents renewed their tussle with below-zero air, as it dropped a few degrees lower than Friday's temperatures.

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. was once again one of the coldest spots in the country with a nippy 16 degrees below zero.

Despite the warming trend, snow sprinkles were predicted for New England and the eastern Great Lakes areas today. Snow was also expected to continue in the northern Rockies and over the Northern Plains states today.

Mullen Pass, Mont., was presented with a hearty helping of snow again Friday and today. A 24-hour accumulation of nine additional inches of snow jacked up the total depth to 66 inches.

A UNITED PRESS survey showed that at least 43 deaths were due to the frosty weather since last Wednesday night.

Illinois topped the list with 15 fatalities. Nebraska, Indiana and Iowa tied for second with five each, there were four in Iowa, three in both New York and Massachusetts, and one each in Michigan, New Mexico and Vermont.

that Bullock's first opened at Seventh and Broadway in Los Angeles in 1900, under the direction of John G. Bullock and P. G. Winnett, present chairman of the board.

Bigelow Service Set for Jan. 14 At St. Theresa's

Funeral Mass for Georgia Mae Bigelow, 39, 32-32 Sky Blue Water Trail, will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Monday, from the St. Theresa Catholic Church, with Father Michael O'Donohue, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in the new Palm Springs cemetery.

Rosary will be recited at Wiefels and Son Chapel at 8 p.m., Sunday. Mrs. Bigelow died at 8 a.m., Friday, Jan. 11, at her home. A native of Sonora, she had been a resident of Palm Springs for two and a half years.

Survivors include her husband, Dr. William L. Bigelow; two sons, Robert and Gerald Bigelow, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Penney of Palo Alto.

BULLOCK'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY was observed here this week with a dinner-party at Thunderbird Country Club. Seated at the head of a table ringed by managers of departments from Bullock's Palm Springs store were Manager Addie Hubbard, Frank Rice, advertising chief of the Los Angeles store, and Larry Quinn, superintendent of the Palm Springs store.

Capacity Crowd Enthusiastic Over Liberace

One of the "greatest shows to feature the stage of the Chi Chi Starlite Room, packed them in to capacity Friday night and the applause almost bulged the walls of the beautiful new room.

It was Liberace, of course, an brother George.

The showmanship of the fine pianist, his wizardry on the keys, his humor, his singing — and he even went into a pleasing dance routine — had the appreciative audience calling for more, and more and more.

Liberace, who apparently was enjoying the evening as much as anyone in the house, responded and gave an all-out show.

Chi Chi patrons really had themselves a ball, what with Liberace, George and Estelle Sloan, mighty clever dancers, helped make it a great evening.

Patronage on one line of Detroit's public transit system rose 20 per cent after motor buses replaced street cars on the line.

tion to showing dozens of educational films. Often when the turnout is so heavy two shows are staged in one evening to accommodate the crowds.

A large sun roof, ideal for outdoors art and museum displays, is a major feature of the second floor. Detailed uses of the large second-floor room will be worked out later by the Museum Board of Trustees, but provision is to be made for a meeting and exhibit room of the Palm Springs Historical Society which has many photos and objects preserved from early Palm Springs days.

If sufficient funds are raised, the architects also propose that a full-size basement be provided as this would afford badly-needed storage space. Frequently in recent years the Museum officials, confronted with a bare minimum of space to display materials, have been unable to accept proffered collections of museum materials which they would have greatly desired to receive.

Donors specified that certain exhibit schedules should be maintained and these could not be met. In other instances no safe permanent storage of the priceless collections has been available.

U. S. Army Europe headquarters reports a total of 61,562 officers and enlisted men enrolled in its educational program.

High School Contractor Given 30-Day Extension for Completion of Work

Builders of the new high school science and administration buildings have been granted a 30-day extension of contract time for completion of the work by the Palm Springs Unified School District School Board.

Building Contractor Charles Lagreco, of the Cal Construction Company, originally requested a 50-extension, explaining that steel shortages held up work for almost two months.

IT WAS THE longest extension, yet requested in the school district's building program financed by a $2,125,000 bond issue.

Lagreco told the board that in addition to delays already affected by steel shortages, he anticipated further delay because of the inadequacy of an electrical sub-contractor.

However, the board chopped his original request after Board Member Haig Harris reflected that the shortcomings of sub-contractors were the responsibility of the general contractor, and "there was no reason why the school district should suffer."

BOTH LAGRECO and Architect Don Wexler drew mild censure from the board, but members approved by Wexler's recommendation that a 30-day extension would be "justly deserved" by the contractor.

Lagreco reported earlier that he planned to finish the science building in three weeks and the administration building in about three or four weeks after that.

Chamber Refuses to Back Telephone Rate Increase

Criticizing the telephone company's apparent "inability" to keep up with desert area growth, Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce board of directors have refused to lend their support to proposed telephone rate increases.

California Water and Telephone Company officials asked chamber directors to support their application for rate increases, but directors dryly reflected that the company would do better to improve its service before seeking backing from any organization.

THE LOCAL telephone company, along with two other area companies, was brought under fire of complaining service subscribers at California Public Utility Commission hearings here last week. Reporting on the company's request for support, chamber manager Jimmy Cooper explained that while the board did not object to rate increases, they felt that it was an inopportune time for such a request.

FURTHERMORE, Cooper pointed out, it isn't "chamber policy to interfere in rate matters of any public utility."

"That's up to the Utility Commission," Cooper remarked, adding that "I don't think anyone would object to the increases if the service were improved."

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Who Comes Here?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Even before the Hungarian influx, our policy on a major American import—human beings—was more heart than head. In the 83rd Congress, if the Administration gets its way, we are going to gallop like headless horsemen down dead-end roads of moonshine.

By telephone and on foot I have been contacting agencies and sub-agencies which have to do with this inbound traffic of persons. Everybody with whom I've talked has been cordial and responsive, but I haven't found anybody in the State Department, the Labor Department, the Inter-governmental Committee on European Migration (ICEM), the U. S. Escapee Program or the U. S. Employment Services who has more than parochial knowledge of what's coming into this country.

My basic question has been, "Do you have a statistical breakdown of the skills possessed by these incoming people?" The frankest answer came from a State Department official who told me:

"THERE'S NO such breakdown. If there were I'd be the one to know about it. I'm sure there's no such breakdown in existence."

Well, during the life of the Eisenhower Administration, we have accepted about a quarter of a million persons, over and above the regular immigration quotas. It's hard to see how this large task can be intelligently performed, much less how the work load can be safely increased, without knowing more of what it's all about. You can't help wondering whether the President and Vice President are speaking from information—or sheer impulse—when they make these sweeping recommendations for more immigrants.

Such information as there is, scattered and apparently not coordinated, has to be picked up in bits and pieces. The Labor Department has a representative at Camp Kilmer to list the job capabilities of the Hungarians. The Escapee Program, which has dealt with 85,000 fugitives since 1952, has an office in Washington but its statistics are kept in Frankfurt, Germany. ICEM, a spokesman in Washington, has a group in Geneva. The United Nations has a high Commissioner for Refugees, Dr. Auguste R. Lindt, but this gentleman is very remote from American policy-making.

LACK OF FULL and detailed information is the more tantalizing because the bits and pieces suggest that this current immigration wave is one of considerable quality. I'm told by the Labor Department that from 75 to 85 per cent of the first 5000 Hungarian refugees are single, between 18 and 28 years of age, and possess skills useful to American industry.

The average education is first-year high school, but about 15 per cent of the Hungarians have professional training in law, medicine, business management and teaching. Of the industrial workers, a considerable number are trained in the manufacture of machine tools, a very important skill to American economy.

The Hungarians differ from the all-nation escapees who came before the Budapest revolt last October and November. The "case-load" of 26,000 persons now in the pipelines of the U. S. Escapee Program shows two per cent students, 12 per cent professional and 22 per cent skilled workers. BOTH REFUGEES and escapees are above the immigration average. In general, persons who make a determined and dangerous effort to break through the Iron Curtain are apt to be more desirable than those who stand in line. The run of the immigration mill, I am told, are day laborers, farm helpers and servants.

"My phone rings several times a day," said one official, "with people I know who want me to find them a maid."

Such flotsam of information is intriguing and full of promise. The point is that we don't have enough of it that is assembled and available to the Administration and Congress, the press and the public. We need more study in order to set forth a policy and map a program.

NATIONS IN THE immigration business have a duty to go at it with precision. The British Commonwealth takes almost as many foreign persons as we do, but not with the same abandon. For several years Canada has kept an office at Karlsruhe, Germany, where applicants for admission to Canada are checked off against a list of needed skills. Australia has a similar method of using refugees and escapees as a labor pool.

Other nations are humanitarian or restrictive as their economy requires. Sweden because of a salubrious climate is open-armed to tuberculars. Luxembourg and Ireland are especially hospitable to older persons. Israel with a special population problem with generally exclude all but Jewish peoples. There's no reason why the United States, alone among nations, should act from ignorance and haste.

Then some uncouth lout let's go with a blast on his horn to summon a pal from the neighboring house. Not once, but many times. Drowned out the soothing symphony of the rain drops and caused me to arise before I had intended to.

NOW, SECTION 671 of the California Vehicle Code sets forth that every automobile must be equipped with a warning device, presumably a horn, which can be heard, under normal conditions, at least 200 feet away.

But it also states that while the driver is permitted to sound this horn when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation, "such horn shall not be otherwise used."

So every time you use the auto horn as a doorbell, being too lazy to get out and ring that bell or knock on the door, you are guilty of a misdemeanor.

It's especially bad during the fishing season when pole pals call for each other at 2 a. m.

THEY TELL THE STORY that up at Howard Manor during the recent spell of moisture, Bob Howard was observed taking a picture of that great horse, Seabiscuit, pride of the Howard family, from its place of honor on the wall.

When asked why, he explained: "I noticed some of this rain was leaking in. And Seabiscuit was never a great mudder."

I don't know. Until Swaps came along to be my co-favorite, the Biscuit was alone on top and unless my memory is faulty, I had him on the nose in the rain once.

THESE INDIAN AVENUE lights are the subject of much conversation since they were turned on the other night.

Some people do not like them. Not ornamental enough. But they certainly are useful.

Said one man "it's a delight to drive along Indian Avenue at night now. Before the era of lights you always wondered whether you were going to hit some one."

Said another: "Yeah, now you can see WHO you are going to hit. Gives you more choice."

YOU NEVER KNOW the dire results of careless caressing of the keyboard of a typewriter until the victims dialy you.

The happy reporter was writing of the doings of a Villager the other day and, perhaps from force of habit, wrote "Mr. and Mrs. Whoosit."

Zing went the telephone the next morning. It was Whoosit. "I'll have you know that I am a bachelor. Eligible one, too. You spoiled what was starting out like a beautiful friendship," he chided.

"Had a date last night with a honey. But she stood me up. Found out later that she had read the item about me and said she wasn't going to mess around with a married man, of which I am not one."

But Thursday morning it was so pleasant to lie abed in the dawning day to listen to the rain on the roof. Soothing.

Then some uncouth lout let's go with a blast on his horn to summon a pal from the neighboring house. Not once, but many times. Drowned out the soothing symphony of the rain drops and caused me to arise before I had intended to.

INEZ ROBB:

Let's Have More Glue

Well, sir, it surely is a pleasure to see by the papers that President Eisenhower intends to retain Arthur E. Summerfield as Postmaster General.

Summerfield is a Lord Chest-erfield of bureaucracy, if ever there was one, and my favorite Cabinet officer. May his shadow never grow less. He has been my political dreamboat ever since he told the Post office Department to simmer down and leave me and my yellow mailbox be.

For two years, I beefed aloud and beat my breast because an ancient postal regulation insisted that every rural mailbox in the U. S. A. be painted either white or aluminum, under penalty of non-delivery of mail to an offending or off-color box.

At the end of that period, Summerfield said the ordinance was ancient and just plain silly. He gallantly added that he would toss out that regulation and expressed his hope that I would live happily and unmolested ever after with my yellow mailbox, which had so offended his subordinates.

So now I think Summerfield is just the man to solve the latest serious postal problem that confronts the nation. What this country needs is not a good five-cent cigar, but a good three-cent stamp with enough glue on the back to make it adhere to an envelope.

Obviously a man of Summerfield's importance does not have to lick his own stamps as do we lesser citizens. Otherwise, he would be aware that at least 50 percent of Uncle Sam's stamps today are as innocent of glue as a Nashua.

In the old days, citizens used to holler because of the flavor of stamp glue. Everyone agreed that it was awful. Some persons wanted raspberry flavor, and some were willing to settle for vanilla. (I could have licked all 500 stamps in that pre-Christmas roll produced by Chez Robb and my taste buds would still have remained virgin and unimpaired.

As of now, citizens are willing to settle for glue, no matter what the flavor, if only the Post Office Department will return it to stamps. It can taste of old burned boot tops crossed with brussel sprouts, if need be, if only stamps demonstrate a little sticking power.

Only a week or so ago, I read that some bride-to-be in the Midwest was heartbroken because so many of her wedding invitations were returned when fickle stamps parted company with envelopes. This is a situation that is not apt to trouble me, as I was married 27 years ago when, in one woman's opinion, both glue and bridegrooms were of better quality. At least, if I read the postal complaints and the divorce statistics aright, both had more admirable adhesive characteristics in the past.

Is this current lack of glue on stamps an economy measure? Or is it subtle propaganda to raise the rates of first-class postage to four cents per letter? All right, I believe in economy in government but not in glue. And until the Post Office Department puts some glue on the three-centers, I'm agin the four-cent measure.

Mr. Summerfield, honey, I'm glad you have staying powers. But I wish I could say as much for your stamps.

EARL WILSON:
Monique Busts in on Elvis

NEW YORK — Elvis Presley needs branches—to take care of all his girls.

The dames' adoration for him is getting like the Valentino hysteria. Singer Monique Van Vooren ("the Belgian Bulge") got into his dressing room at Ed Sullivan's TV show and awakened him from a nap—sort of darning, as she'd never met him before.

"I must meet him!" moaned Monique to me a couple days before. "YOU introduce me at rehearsal!" pleaded the Broadway and Hollywood beauty.

"BUT MAYBE HE'll ask you for a date," I said, naively. "He won't have to ask me twice!" she smiled. She didn't forget, for as I left for Ed's rehearsal I got a wire from her saying, "Remember, this is E. P. Day."

And at the theater! Busty Betty George, another celebrated cafe singer, gazed into Elvis' eyes, getting his autograph. Little girls thrust birthday gifts at him. "We got four birthday cakes at the hotel," his manager, "Cunnel" Tom Parker, groaned.

JAZZ EXPERT Eddie Candon pointed to a mass of screaming girls. "I got a 13-year-old in there," he muttered.

"Cunnel" Parker O.K'd me taking Monique and a little friend, Angel O'Sullivan, 12, to meet Elvis at 6:30. We waited half an hour while Elvis napped. "I got to see Eisenhower easier—but Elvis is richer," Monique said.

"Let me wake him up!" she cried later. His pals didn't object. Elvis was dressed. "Elvis, darling!" She said, bending over him.

Waking up scowling, he finally threw his arms around both girls—after formal introductions—then asked little Angel: "What do you do for a living?" "I'm in the 7th grade," she answered, nervously.

"IF YOU'RE NOT doing anything," Elvis grinned at Monique, "come in."

She wasn't doing anything. They talked sitting on the couch till I said she'd better go.

"He wanted me to stay!" she grumbled at me. "I thought he was just a boy. But he glanced at me like a man. I never met a male with such magnetism."

Angel just kept saying "Oooh!" Cupid's little handmaid here wishes to report that "Cunnel" Parker told Monique they'd see her in Los Angeles when she's singing at Mocambo in a couple of weeks, that it was a "great favor" of her to drop in.

Elvis' press agent, Tom Distin, of Nashville, shook his head. "Whatever Elvis's got, it ain't contagious," he said. "I been with him two years. No gals go for me like that."

Letters to the Editor

Desert Sun Editor:
I think it is about time that the people of Palm Springs began a vigorous campaign for the erection of a Civic Auditorium. Last week's presentation of the Mozart Requiem should convince our citizens that we have talent in this city which warrants a proper building in which to have our Music Season's artists presented.

Perhaps, no other city in the United States for its size can be called the "HOME" of so many world renown celebrities. No other city can attract conventions, business gatherings nor tourists as we can because we have so much more to offer except a large enough auditorium for large events.

It is time the people of our Village began to think in terms of bigger things and better things if we are to have successful music seasons. Let's get behind a real campaign for a Bowl for our musicians along with an auditorium for special events.

MILDRED FITZGERALD
232 South Indian Avenue.

Editor The Desert Sun:

About a year ago I raised the question before a couple of organizations here in Palm Springs about the possibility of changing the ridiculous circumstances under which we live here as far as time is concerned.

In the wintertime we need at least two more hours of sun and in the summertime we need at least two hours less sun. I feel I simply cannot restrain myself any longer about broaching this subject to you and the backward thinking indulged in locally concerning it.

In the winter we live here for the beautifully sunny days and in the summer for the wonderfully balmy nights and we should have properly adjusted time to enjoy both!

I realize this could become a highly controversial subject, but from the conversations I have had with so many local residents and business people, from time to time, I feel it would be most worthwhile if the Daily Desert Sun would write a couple of articles both "pro" and "con" on this idea and possibly a blank form could be furnished your readers to return to you stating their preference: Would they want two more hours sun in the wintertime and two hours less in the summertime?

Such a survey would give us an adequate reaction to the thinking about this and whether or not people here in Palm Springs really do want to enjoy our town as it should be enjoyed.

Sincerely yours,
HERB RAUCH,

ROBERT BECK, publisher of the Centerville Daily Iowegian, spent some time in Palm Springs this week, visiting with his brother, Harold Beck, right, who lives here. The publisher stopped in Palm Springs after attending the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, where he watched his home state take the honors from Oregon State. (Desert Sun Photo).

Iowa Publisher Amazed At Growth of Village

Quiet spoken, efficient looking Robert Beck, publisher of the Centerville Daily Iowegian, whose magnetic personality causes your immediate attention to both his actions and his spoken word, is a local visitor this week.

The Iowan, visiting with his brother, Harold Beck, in Palm Springs, made the trip to the West Coast to watch the Rose Bowl game, and today glorifies in Iowa's victory over Oregon State.

A FREQUENT visitor to Palm Springs, Beck, who first came here in 1946, and the last time was here two years ago, said "I have never seen a town that has grown so tremendously fast." In talking about the Village, Robert said, "This is quite an impressive city." Harold Beck, himself a newspaper publisher, just two years ago sold the Oceanside Blade-Tribune and came to Palm Springs. In Iowa, Bob Beck is far from being "just a newspaper publisher." An ex-legislator—the youngest in the state, today he serves as chairman of the State Highway Commission.

AMONG THE political leaders of that state, Robert Beck is talked about as being the man for the governorship, but he is reluctant to admit that a drive is on to carry him to that post.

During his visit here, Beck made a visit to Ward J. Risvold, publisher of The Desert Sun, who, during his days with International News Service, had the Centerville Daily Iowegian as a client.

Beck, with his wife, Charlotte, plans to return to Iowa within the next few days.

Revenue Officers Seize Car for Back Due Taxes

Two representatives of the Internal Revenue office at Riverside yesterday seized a 1955 Lincoln Capri of Jack W. Swartzbaugh La Quinta, for failure to pay withholding taxes for the first quarter of 1956, amounting to $900.

Making the seizure were Macolm Engel and Harold Thirkell. Unless the car is redeemed, it will be sold at public auction in Palm Springs in the near future.

Legion to Hold Regular Square Dance Tonight

Glen Shoop of Long Beach will be the caller, with the public invited to attend.

There will not be a dance on Jan. 19, because of the Firemen's Ball at the Legion Hall, but the dances will be resumed on Saturday night, Jan. 26, with Herb Lesher of Pasadena as the caller.

'Following Christ' To Be Sermon At Community

"Following Christ" will be the subject for the message which Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the Community Church of Palm Springs, will present Sunday morning at both the 9:30 and the 11 o'clock worship services.

The Chancel Choir under the direction of Elmer Young will present the anthem, "Onward Christian Soldiers," by Sullivan. Mrs. Lois Lux will accompany the choir on the organ.

The Sunday School of the church has classes for all age groups. From the Beginners up through the Juniors there are classes both at 9:30 and at 11 and the Adult Class meets in the Woman's Club building, across the street from the church, at 9:30 with Frank Cary teacher of the class.

The Young Adult class meets at the 11 o'clock hour with James McManus, the director of Young People, as the teacher. A nursery is conducted during both the hours for the care of small children.

THE CHRISTIAN Endeavor Meetings are held at 6:15 for the High School Young People in the church parlor. This Sunday will be a special musical evening with a number of the young people taking part in a talent program. The Junior High Young People meet at the same time for a discussion, with Roy Davis in charge.

Church Holds Annual Meeting, Names Officers

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Community Church of Palm Springs was held in the church, with several hundred members and friends gathered in the Sanctuary after a covered dish dinner to consider the business of the evening.
Carl Lykken, clerk, reported that the membership of the church at present is 618 and the enrollment of the Sunday School is 701.
Charles McDonald, church treasurer, reported that the church had a total income of nearly $70,000 during the year.

THE FOLLOWING men were elected to serve for a term of three years on the Board of Elders: Edwin Werges, Paul Burkholder, Merle Hancock, Ted Greene, Bill Veith and Jack Copass. Earl Stewart was elected for a two year term to fill the vacancy which was created by the sudden death of Dave King last May 18.
Al Normandin and D. B. Carlin were re-elected to the Board of trustees and two new members, Earl Sutton and William S. Ford were elected for the ensuing three year term.

THE STORY OF the life of the church in all of its varied activities was presented in colored slides, most of which were taken during the year by Fay Brainerd. Bonnie Jean Blackstone, daughter of the local minister, was the narrator.
Dr. William Aikin, president of the Board of Trustees, presided at the business meeting of the corporation, and reports by various committees showed a very healthy active condition in the church, and the congregation was informed of progress being made in developing plans for the eventual construction of a new sanctuary.

THE CHURCH is purchasing three pieces of property on Cailla Road at a total cost of $107,000, which the church is to finance through church bonds, which are expected to be ready by March 1. Already several contributions have been made toward the expansion fund and the congregation expects by the middle of March to be ready to proceed with a fund campaign for a church building.

'Sacrament' Set As Christian Science Topic
The sermon on "Sacrament," emphasizing the great need of spiritual regeneration, will be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon is the Golden Text from Psalms (24:3, 4), "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart, who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully."
From the Bible John's Gospel relates that after "he was risen from the dead," Jesus admonished his disciples, "Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes" (21:14-6). Mark's account tells that following Jesus' ascension the disciples "went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following" (16:20).

Snow mold which shows up on lawns as snow melts is a form of root rot.

Board to Meet Monthly With County Officials

Acting on the recommendation of Administrative Officer Clay Begole, the Board of Supervisors decided this week to hold regular monthly sessions with department heads in order to arrive at a better understanding.

They set the time for the next meeting as Monday, Jan. 14 at 1 p.m., and indicated that thereafter monthly sessions will be held on second Mondays of each month at one o'clock.

Begole, who had been asked by the old board to study the advisability of holding informal sessions with department heads, said that such meetings in the counties of San Bernardino and Orange have proven very successful.

"The department heads present problems that are of interest to all departments and decisions of general benefit to the administration of county affairs are the result," he said.

Local Architects Attend AIA Chapter Installation

Two Palm Springs architects and their wives participated in the installation ceremonies of the Southern California Chapter, American Institute of Architects, held at the Ambassador Hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Roger Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Robson Chambers were on hand when Leon Chatelain, Jr., national president of the American Institute of Architects from Washington, D.C., installed Cornelius M. Deasy as the 62nd president of the Southern California Chapter, third largest chapter in the country.

CHATELAIN in a press conference held earlier in the day cited Palm Springs as one of the outstanding communities in Southern California and praised the architects there for their contribution to community planning and contemporary architecture.

Deasy stated that this year's Chapter policy will include more visits by the eight-man board of directors to other areas in Southern California, including Palm Springs.

"WE ARE WELL aware," he said, "that other communities in the Southland have much to be proud of in the way of commercial, residential and religious architecture and we would like to view these progressive communities first hand and talk to their architects personally."

Chatelain reported that the American Institute of Architects now numbers well over 11,000 members with some 92 Chapters over the country.

Members of the Southern California Chapter, A.I.A. from Palm Springs include John Porter Clark, Robson Cole Chambers, William F. Cody, Albert Frey, H. Roger Williams and E. Stewart Williams. Stanley Ring of Palm Desert is also a Southern California Chapter member.

County Offices In Idyllwild to Cost Money Now

The Idyllwild Fire Protection District notified two county departments which have been using space in the Idyllwild fire station for some time without paying any rent, that because of the increased cost of maintenance rent will be charged each department, effective the first of January, $25 a month.

The county supervisors have authorized funds for the rentals, $210 to the sheriff's department, and $210 to the department of building and safety, to take care of the six months remaining in this fiscal year.

Automobile Influx Into State Set New Record in '56

Automobile influx into California and the Southland rolled to its second consecutive annual record in 1956, the Automobile Club of Southern California reported today.

Some 1,867,782 out-of-state cars, with 4,978,367 passengers, entered California in 1956 compared to 1,762,681 cars, with 4,742,595 passengers in 1955.

The Southland record was set by 958,481 foreign cars — a three per cent increase over 1955 — with 2,568,788 passengers.

The Club said California auto influx has increased every year in the past decade except 1949 and 1954.

The young people of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Palm Springs and Immanuel Lutheran Church, Twentynine Palms, this week voted unanimously to merge and plan activities as one society.

Officers elected were Ron Ristau, president; Patty Peters, vice president and Christian growth chairman; Renee Omdahl, secretary-treasurer.

Regular meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p.m., with the two churches alternately acting as host. A number of special outings are also planned.

The goal of the group was defined as promoting Christian growth both in the church and home, acting as an arm of the church's expansion program, and enjoying the companionship of fellow Christian Youth.

School Going Modern, Getting Cash Registers

The Palm Springs School Board is considering installation of recording-type cash registers in the high school and some of the elementary school lunchrooms.

Paul Summers, school district business manager, suggested the acquisition of the registers so that the school may dispense with the complicated ticket system which, he said, would eventually require hiring of extra clerks and would create a confusing accounting problem.

New Roofing Weathered Rain

New roofs on temporary Palm Springs school buildings successfully weathered the resort area rains, Paul G. Summers, school district business manager, told the school board last night.

Summers reported that roofing completed on four structures at Nellie Coffman, Cahulla and Palm Springs high schools just before last week's rains proved weather-tight.

Housework Not Enough

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The shipping clerk and busy housewife both need outside exercise to keep fit for their tasks, according to a professor of physical education at the University of Los Angeles campus here. He believes this is needed because the work they do is inadequate to keep them in condition to perform it.

Many Pre-Theatre Parties to Mark Playhouse Opening

Palm Springs society will gather at El Mirador on January 14 for Sponsors Ball. Stage and screen celebrities and many Los Angeles guests will be in the gay throng who will have just attended the preview performance of "A Roomful of Roses" at the Playhouse. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bertine Tremaine Treat, the ballroom will be beautifully prepared for this festive evening, with softly glowing tapers, flower-decked scheme. A delectable supper will be served to the late dinners and there will be dancing at Joe Mo-shay's pleasing rhythm.

As in the three preceding Sponsors Balls the decorations will pale beside the brilliantly dressed women and their "black tie" escorts. Glamorous formal gowns will appear for the first time, and beautiful furs will belie the desert's balmy evenings. Last year the ballroom shimmered in silver and red, the year before it was pink with silver, and the first ball setting was built around a red and gold scheme. Whatever the background colors, the sparkle will be there in table settings, jewels, personalities, and conversation. A "Roomful of Roses" will burst into radiant bloom, and another elegant party will have marked the opening of Palm Springs' own beloved theater-in-the-round.

Many cocktail-buffets will serve as curtain-raisers. The largest of these will be hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard at the exclusive Committee of Twenty Five Club. Canapes and hot hors d'oeuvres will be served to about two hundred guests. Among those attending the Dollard party will be Mr. and Mrs. John F. Luccarelli, and their table guests at the ball, Messrs. and Mmes. Edwin Schallert (Los Angeles Times drama critic), Paul W. Trousdale, Howard S. McKay, Francis Guder (Marjorie Rambeau), and Mayor and Mrs. Florian Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf will take their Los Angeles guests, Messrs. and Mmes. Arthur Bergh, Don Bleitz, Wendell Hunt, and Willis Lane. Others who will join them later at the table, will also be the Dollards, the P. S. Manesses, the Dolph Obergeigs, and Mrs. Joseph Froggatt.

The entire group who will be at the Harry Joe Brown and Maurice Horner table at the ball, will be taking pre-theater refreshment with the Dollards. They are Messrs. and Mmes. O. E. L. Graves, Stewart Hopps, Sidney Schiff, A. R. Simon, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Salinger, John Morris, Mrs. Lloyd Frank, Mrs. Gwynne Hurrell, Mrs. J. Alexander Marcuse, and Miss Rose Mints.

Many others from Smoke Tree Ranch, Palm Springs, and Los Angeles will enjoy the Dollard hospitality before going to the theater.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burns have invited friends to their very smart Four Hundred for sips and snacks. Those awaiting curtain time with the Burns are Messrs. and Mmes. Merrill Crockett, Allen Petty, William A. Iverson Jr., Hugo Steinmeyer, Dr. and Mrs. William Brashears, John Outcault, and Miss Betty Clinkscales.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Murphy will have the following guests for a cocktail buffet at their home; Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Klamp, S. Earl Henderson, Bernard Bollman, Irwin Eisenberg, and Miss Bess Bender, Maury Wax.

The A. H. Weinerts will serve cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at their Smoke Tree Ranch home to other Ranch friends including the Walt Disneys, M. E. Schwabs, and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Long have asked Thunderbird friends in for cocktails, including the Victor Hugo-Vidals and Chauncey Needhams.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coffey will entertain their table guests at a pre-theater supper, the Robson Chambers, the Roger Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Poliak, and Dr. and Mrs. William Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bagdasarian will host the following group for a cocktail buffet, Messrs. and Mmes. Leonard Bock, Harry Hilp, Russ Nicoll, and Kay Karahadian.

Mrs. Bertine Treat will preside over a large table at El Mirador during the ball. Her guests will be Messrs. and Mmes. John McClure Montague Herbert, Harold Cooper, Robert Davis, Harold McAllister, Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, and Jack Wheeler.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Backstrom will have the following friends at their table: Messrs. and Mmes. Warren Slaughter, Robert Peterson, Lloyd Tevis, John Morgan, and Ted McKinney.

The Mel Eatons have arranged a table together with the Jack Blighs, John Kenastons, Co Thornstons, and Joe Haies.

Major and Mrs. Reuben Fleet will have a large group of friends from San Diego as their theater and supper dance guests. Coming from the southern city are Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Rohr, I. M. Ladd, Anderson Borthwick, Donald Burnham, and Messrs. Richard Jessop, Armisted Carter, Lloyd Russell, and R. S. Seabrook.

with Hildy Crawford

Theatre lovers have cherished the Palm Springs Playhouse... ever since it started eight years ago in a green-and-white striped tent... and it is with real pleasure that the Village greets the opening of another Playhouse season... The sponsorship of the Playhouse Guild has meant much through the years... so the annual invitational preview performance and Sponsors Ball... which take place tonight... are a traditional part of the theatre opening... A formal affair, with the women in evening gowns and the men black tie... it is always one of the first of the big social events of January...

Virginia Farrell, Auxiliary president, and Florence Murphy, chairman of the Ball, and all their hard-working committee, are to be complimented on the Capricorn Ball... which was the first big affair to be staged by the Women's Auxiliary of the Desert Hospital... This was not only a brilliant affair... it was highly successful in raising money for Desert Hospital... with a minimum of expense and practically all the proceeds going to the Auxiliary to finance needed projects at Desert Hospital...

The style show was well-staged... and Madelyn Fio Rito White lent distinction... as she commentated the showing...

It was such a wonderful Ball... that two of the guests, Berne and Jack Meiselman, were inspired to pledge $5000 to furnish a room at Desert Hospital...

The Maury Horners entertain at cocktails tonight... honoring their houseguests Commander and Mrs. Jay Sorenson... and this next week they'll fly back to Winnetka, Illinois to inspect the ranch house they are building... They'll be away for about five days...

The Horace Horners (he's Maury's brother) of Rumson, New Jersey... will be out to spend the month of February here...

MRS. K. DU BURY of Cathedral City, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Bjorlie have been vacationing in Las Vegas at the Rivera.

Capricorn Ball Proves Brilliant

From the television room to the Mural Room, the Racquet Club was filled with beautifully-gowned women and their black tie escorts as the Women's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital staged its Capricorn Ball Thursday night.

A brilliant and successful affair, the Ball exceeded all expectations. The dance floor was crowded all evening, and the showing of gowns flown here especially for the show, was spectacular.

Commentating the show was Madelyn Fio Rito White, United States representative for the two participating houses, Fontana of Rome and La Tessitrice of Capri. Opening the showing of the hand-woven La Tessitrice sport clothes and sun dresses, was brunette lovely Florence Horn, who wore navy and red shorts and blouse for tennis. Queenly Veva Seng wore yellow capri pants and chartreuse blouse and Carolyn Morris appeared in red.

Jane Wade modeled a turquoise and white sun dress and Edith Luce an interesting grey-yellow-white patterned sheath. Others modeling were Sue Florsheim and Martha Ellis.

There were sheer silks, hand-woven, and gowns in primitive colors, said to be inspired by the African sunsets.

Fontana of Rome showed an all hand embroidered sheath, and a piquant pale pink gown with embroidery banding the bodice and the hips. One of the most striking was the pure silk shantung in red, which was inspired by a Cardinal's robes.

Visiting Al Anthony, popular entertainer at LaPaz, this week were his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Osterberg of Waukegan, Illinois, and his aunt Mrs. E. S. Bowers of San Diego.

Lily Pons Home in House Tour

Six outstanding Palm Springs residences will be opened to the public for the benefit Home Tour which will be presented on Sunday, February 3, from one to five o'clock, under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Homes to be shown will include the beautiful little Chinese palace on a hilltop, belonging to singer Lily Pons and located at 13 Cahulla Drive.

Others will be those of: Mrs. Austin McManus, 281 South Tahquitz; Bill Bogess, 1366 Calle de Maria; Ed Robbin, 1120 East Alejo; Walter Sibbert, 1138 Cactus Drive; Glenn Thomas, 1315 Manzanita.

Most of the homes have been much publicized and are interesting examples of desert living. Permission to show the houses was obtained by Mrs. Herbert Burns and Mrs. Len Owens, A.A.U.W. president.

LIBRARY NOTES

By GERRY VANEK

The little old woman lived with her two cats, Pansy and Violet, her donkey, Arthur, and her cow, Bossy. Pansy and Violet were happy because the attic was full of mice just waiting to be caught. Bossy was a contented cow because the meadow was full of sweet and tender clover for her to eat. And Arthur, the donkey, just loved to drink out of the laughing brook.

But the little old woman had a problem. It seemed the only way she could solve it was to pack up her belongings, assemble her animals, and move. They didn't move once, twice, or even three times. No, they had to move four whole times before everyone was happy again! EDNA BESCKER, the author, tells us just how the problem was solved with 900 BUCKETS OF PAINT, and that's the name of the book.

Speaking of animals who like to eat, LeGRAND has a wonderful tale to tell you about MATILDA. Matilda was a goat, and she had a tremendous appetite. Why, she'd eat everything from tin cans and chunks of coal to footballs and long, red underwear. Now don't laugh—it was her taste for long, red underwear that saved her very life one day! But that's getting ahead of our story.

The only thing that Matilda enjoyed more than eating was butting people when they were being over! She surprised a lot of people that way. She surprised Patrick Riley, her owner; she surprised an absent-minded professor, and, most of all, she surprised the sleepy fullback on the Columbia football team. In fact, she surprised him so much (and he flew so far) that, when he landed he had made a touchdown for his team! This gave the football coach a stupendous idea — just as the book itself is bound to give you some jolly chuckles and giggles!

IN THE WONDERFUL ICE CREAM CART, ALICE ROGERS HAGER takes us to Belgium on a visit with Jerry Tuck. Jerry's a young American boy whose father has been transferred temporarily to Brussels. On his first morning, Jerry discovers a little flower stall "The Garland of Springs," where he meets the friendly Auriol family. He and Jean Pierre decided to exchange language lessons — French for English — and this is only the beginning of their adventures together.

Jerry and Jean Pierre take a trip to the mountains in Papa

Goncourt's wonderful ice cream cart, which is pulled by a most remarkable horse named "Bobo". There they visit the monastery hospital, and hear the amazing legend of Bayard. Their meeting with Mark, the wounded war veteran who has lost his memory, has a very surprising effect on their lives. Back home once again, they turn their attention to decorating a very special kind of float for the annual Flowery Festival. Actually, it is their adventure in the mountains which gives them the inspiration for a most unusual theme for their float. Making the float take ideas, ingenuity, hard work, and cooperation—and even "Bobo" has a leading role to play!

When it is time for Jerry and his family to return to their home in America, they aren't the only ones who regret leaving beautiful Brussels. Those of us who are reading the book will also wish we might stay a little longer with the Auriols, Papa, "Bobo", and THE WONDERFUL ICE CREAM CART!

Youngsters to Sleep on Battleship

Three Southland youngsters are all set for the thrill of their young lives. This weekend they get to sleep in the captain's quarters of the Aircraft Carrier U.S.S. The others are Gannon's nephews, Tommy Meriwether, eight, and Michael Grogan, seven.

Captain John Gannon, commanding officer of the Lexington, is throwing a farewell party for the small fry and their parents aboard the aircraft carrier. The vessel will soon leave on maneuvers. Captain Gannon is George's brother.

Doodles By ROGER PRICE

"SEE FOOD"

At the last meeting of the F.S.S.T. (Flying Sauser Spotters of Terra) Prof. Fritz Zitt passed out some carrots and suggested that we eat them to improve our night vision. Dr. Schwine objected to the idea and he said that eating carrots had nothing to do with seeing in the dark and that Prof. Zitt wouldn't think so either if his brother-in-law didn't own a vegetable store. This made Prof. Zitt so mad he flung his beer can at Dr. Schwine, but unfortunately it missed and crashed into the juke box causing a short circuit that blew out all the lights. Naturally that broke up the meeting so Prof. Zitt invited us over to the Big Ace Bar and Grill where he bought everybody a drink. Carrot juice on the rocks.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sal The Beard Maglie, once known as "The Barber," fingered a magnificent vandyke today and blandly ignoring his 40 years asserted that he expected next season to be "even better" than his amazing comeback campaign of 1956.

Sal stood the baseball world on its collective ear last summer after being regarded as a "washed up" pitcher. The Dodgers got him from Cleveland and all he did was win 13 big games for the Brooks as well as pitch a no-hitter.

Take it from the healthy and eager veteran, it's all in the head.

"Two years ago, when I had a bad year, I felt like quitting on opening day," he explained, "I had a lot of back trouble and I hadn't learned how to live with it. I was holding back and hurting my arm."

SO WHEN HE GOT his comeback chance at Brooklyn, Maglie "just cut loose."

"The main thing with pitching is control," he explained. "That only comes with confidence. Then, too, Brooklyn showed it was glad to have me on the club. Now I know that the back won't get any worse any, if I need an extra day of rest I can take it, I'm so eager for the season to start that I can't hardly wait."

Sal grinned happily as he toyed with the vandyke jutting blackly from his chin, a publicity gag for Remington Rollietric, and allowed that with it he "looks like a vaudeville magician."

The Barber, who sports a perennial five o'clock shadow, never shaves before a game.

"I WANT TO LOOK mean and tough," he said. "Some of the boys dress for the fans, shaving just before they play. Me, I dress for the hitters."

Maglie is happy with his comeback year even though it could have been better. Because he won the first game of the World Series and, although he pitched a magnificent fifth game, had the misfortune to bump into Don Larsen's perfect game.

Sal said if he's better than last year, it will be just so much gravy. With a little "luck," Maglie believes he's in.

Incidentally, by that time the vandyke will be out.

The Riverside County League Champs needn't have made last night's journey to the fair city of Elsinore for it proved to be a totally disastrous in all aspects. If anything it proved that Elsinore will undoubtedly be in the running for the league crown for 1957. Palm Springs fought an uphill battle the entire game and with the sound of the final buzzer were on the bottom of a very definite 64-51 score.

In the Bee tilt, the papooses really put on a display of basketball that had the fans from both schools on the very edge of their seats. Coach Al Kazmier must have really gave them a half-time pep talk because at the half, the local junior squad was underneath a 22-12 tally. But playing as well as their "heep big brother" varsity squad, they managed to tie things up at the end of the contest at 36 all. Unfortunately, the Junior Lakers outscore the papooses 3-2 and the extra three minute period ended 39-38. Mike Warner was high point man with 14 digits, he was followed by teammate Jeff Lilley with 10.

Elsinore looked like an extremely strong hardwood squad as they jumped to an early and masterful lead. They lead from tip-off to the final buzzer with the half time score being 41-25, Elsinore's favor and the final being 51-64. Big guns for the game was Phil Roberts of the Tigers with 19 big marker followed by one of the locals, John Warren who managed to stuff through a grand total of 17 measures. Teammate Eddie Tarr quit the ball hawk and one of the chief point getters, with 12 for his account was next.

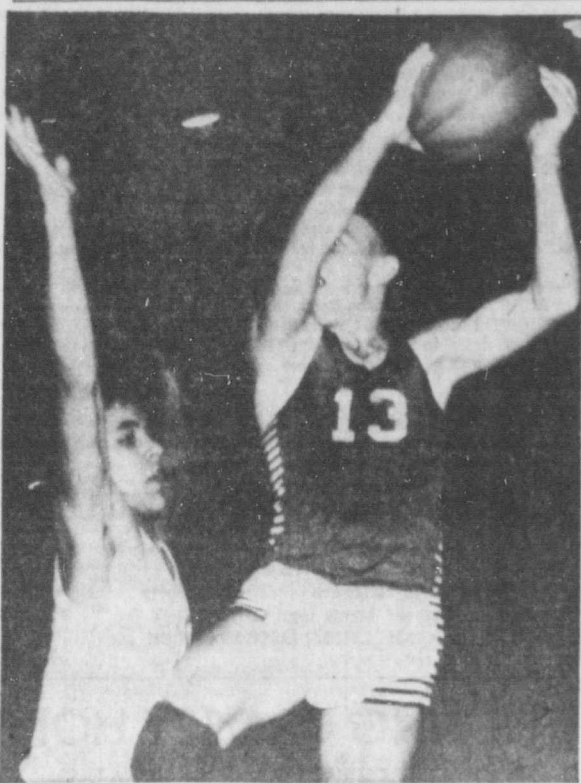

Next week the Indians tangle with the Cougars of Beaumont High School.

Gardner Elected As President of NCAA

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. closed the business of its 51st convention today on a note of almost complete harmony.

A new executive committee and a new television committee will be named today.

Frank N. Gardner of Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, was elected president at the conclusion of Friday's business session.

Giants on Prowl For Replacement As Jackie Quits

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants sadly accepted Jackie Robinson's retirement as the "awful truth" today and faced up to the necessity of making a major player deal to offset his loss.

The Giants learned Friday night—with no "ifs, ands or buts"—that the 38-year-old Negro star is rejecting their $50,000-plus offer to reconsider his retirement. Robinson broke the news to Giant Vice President Chub Feeney after considering the offer for 24 hours.

Robinson informed Feeney that he will write his formal request to be placed on the voluntary retired list this weekend. Feeney said the Giants expect to receive the letter Monday and will forward it immediately to National League President Warren Giles in Cincinnati.

The Dec. 13 deal in which the Giants thought they acquired Robinson from the Brooklyn Dodgers for an estimated $30,000 and pitcher Dick Littlefield will become void as soon as Giles passes on Robinson's request.

Robinson's decision was a severe blow to the Giants, who hoped the fiery, controversial star would prove a tonic to their slumping game and also be capable of playing about 110 games at first base next season. The Giants' regular first-baseman, Willie White, has been drafted by the Army.

The Giants' officials made no secret of the fact that they must now attempt to swing another deal but did not indicate the player or players they are after. Informed sources believe they will make offers for both Bobby Thomson of the Milwaukee Braves and Frank Thomas of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

U.S. Netters Win

STORMY WEATHER HAMPERS GOLFERS SEEKING CROSBY $15,000 VICTORY

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The stormy-weather golfers tee off in the second round of Bing Crosby's $15,000 National Pro-Amateur Clambake today with a good chance to send the "Sunshine boys" deep down the ladder in the race for big money.

Young Billy Maxwell, who learned his golf playing in the Texas winds, was the leader as the second round of the 54-hole tournament got under way—but Billy shot his six-under-par 66 on the "easy" course Friday.

Today he draws wind-swept Cypress Point—and he'll be lucky if rain doesn't join the wind as another hazard.

Only two men broke par at Cypress Point Friday as a gale hit the late finishers. They were Eric Brown, who comes from the wind-lashed courses of Scotland; and Ed Furgol, former National Open champion from St. Louis, another low-ball hitter. They each had 71.

The 17 best scores were posted at Monterey Country Club, which is somewhat sheltered—on most holes—from the wind. These players had 70 or better.

At 68, two strokes behind Maxwell, he'll be lucky if rain doesn't join the wind as another hazard.

SAM SEZ:

"Do the tensions of modern life get you down? Don't dope yourself with sedatives. Try the following: Phone the T.V. stations—praise their commercials—ask them if they can make them longer; tell your husband to give up golf and donate the money to the Administration's Foreign Aid Fund; tell the traffic cop to "jump in the lake"; ask your wife if she can make her old coat do another winter. If none of these relieve you why dad gummit—visit my office and let me sell you some below market price acreage you can double your money on in 2 or 3 years. Here are some fine buys:

- 1-40 acres, level soil, paved street, canal water, good area, $12,000 — easy terms. Don't miss this! (100% below market price).
- 2-35 acres, canal water, mountain side of the Valley. $300 per acre. Terms. (Below market price). Good drainage soil.

- 7-100 acres near Thunderbird Golf Club. $5500 per acre to qualified buyer. Has streets, utilities, paying crops and some income property.
- 8-165 ft. business frontage, 200 ft. deep, corner lot at intersection in 4 lane business district in Banning. Long lease, only $100 per month. All utilities in.
- 9-Business lot 110'x127½'—Cathedral City area. $50 per month—10 year lease—with option for more.
- 10-500 acres in cotton, grapes and citrus. Swimming pool, tennis court, 42 buildings. Only $600 per acre, $50,000 down. Netted $87,000 in 1955. Owner's have other interest—must leave.

Sure Lightning will Strike Same Place Twice

CONTRARY to popular impression, lightning is more likely than not to strike the same place twice. The Empire State Building has been struck more than 100 times. Reason is that lightning seeks a good conductor. Best conductor for your message when you want to sell, rent, find, hire, give notice is a Classified ad. They often "strike twice," bringing results far beyond expectations. Dial 5005.

City Starts Action on New Display Ordinance

City Attorney Jerry Bunker is today investigating with the help of the building and planning departments, violations by Maury M. Pavny, of Pavny's Butane and Trailer Supply Store, against a city ordinance.

Under the ordinance, local stores are prohibited the displaying of merchandise in front of or around the building.

The city attorney said that Pavny has violated the ordinance on two counts—the display of lawn furniture in front of the store, and the display of trailers to the west of the building.

Pavny said today that he contends that the city cannot pick out one violation and prosecute the party. "There are others who do not conform with this ordinance, including local nurseries and automobile dealers, and I have been operating just the same since before the city was incorporated," he added.

The store owner also says that the merchandise which is displayed at his store is all on his property, and does not hinder the city's right-of-way.

DHS Rotarians Hear Thomas

Desert Hot Springs Rotarians heard Bruce Thomas, foreign correspondent, author and lecturer Thursday, according to Elmer Rebig, program chairman.

Thomas used as the title of his lecture, "World War Two and One-Half."

Thomas, himself a Rotarian of many years standing, is now making his home in Palm Springs.

County May Purchase C-45 Airplane for Civil Defense

With one supervisor passing his vote and the other four supervisors giving a nod of approval, the application by county's Civil Defense for purchase of a C-45 airplane was authorized this week.

Oscar Drescher, Civil Defense coordinator, said that if the purchase is approved by the Federal Government, the price will be $125 but the cost of the plane to the government was $57,000. He said that purchase of the plane primarily for training of Civil Defense personnel would provide eligibility for the purchase, but use of the plane by other county personnel would also be possible.

AIRPORT DIRECTOR Joe Marriott pointed out that the supervisors would not be committed by the application. He said that he will go to Ogden, Utah, where the planes are located to inspect them and pick out the one he deems most serviceable.

He said he understands there are two commercial pilots in the sheriff's department and there are others in the county's employ, including himself, who could pilot the plane if it is acquired.

SUPERVISOR PAUL Anderson said there are various uses to which the plane might be put by the county including transfer of prisoners, geographic surveys, and use by personnel.

"The application is O.K. so long as there are no further negotiations until we know more about it," said Supervisor Anderson. The other supervisors expressed similar sentiments.
